• Currently we have approximately 30 applications in hand. Our goal is to have an additional section of students. Interviews are continuing with the Wal-mart project. Fifty gift cards were purchased and six teachers conducted interviews with prospective students. The pastors of Second Baptist Church and Bethel AME have been contacted to assist us with the recruitment process. The Bloomington Chapter of NAACP has also been contacted to offer assistance. Door-to-door registration in the Crestmont neighborhood has taken place.

• The Boys and Girls Club, Girls Incorporated, the Banneker Community Center and Big Brothers/Big Sisters have been contacted and asked to help publicize this worthwhile program.

• An Early College presentation was made during parent night.

• WFHB (Clarence Boone) has been contacted for a possible radio interview.

• Early College instructors have been identified and they have attended differentiated instruction workshops with Carolyn Coil and many of the Early College Network meetings.

• An overview of the work of the Early College Team as well as prospective plans for Bloomington High School North took place at a faculty meeting in March.
