Supporting Data

The resignation of Thomas T. Mungle opened the position of Principal at Binford Elementary School. This position has been posted, with applications being received and reviewed. A committee has been formed and will bring a recommendation for hire to the School Board of Trustees in the very near future.

Ms. Walsh is a former teacher, counselor, assistant principal and principal. Her experiences include elementary and middle school and she has served as interim principal on several occasions since her early retirement from MCCSC. She is a highly qualified and capable school administrator who continues to keep abreast of education law and MCCSC policies and procedures. She is an excellent candidate to fill this position on an interim basis.
