General Management: General management of the outdoor center will remain with Bradford Woods. The Bradford Woods’ Executive Director, and that person’s designee, has authority to make rules and regulations, regulating the use of Bradford Woods.

Assignment of Agreement: Group will not assign this agreement or purport to sublet the premises, or any part thereof, without prior written permission of Bradford Woods.
Bradford Woods Policies and Procedures: The Group’s representative has received a copy of Bradford Woods policies and procedures that pertain to this specific service. All participants have been or will be informed of these policies and procedures by the Group representatives prior to the event. The Group agrees to abide by all policies and procedures contained therein. Group accepts responsibility for the general supervision, care, and welfare of all group participants (students, teachers, volunteers, employees) during the term of this agreement.

Investment: Group agrees to pay to Bradford Woods the costs for all designated services which may include but not limited to, instruction, facilitation, lodging, supplies, food service, equipment use, and miscellaneous fees associated with the program identified here within.

Billing: Bradford Woods will bill Monroe County Community School Corporation for all fees associated with this agreement upon completion of the services. All fees are due within 30 days of the billing date.

Liability: The Group agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Bradford Woods, The Trustees of Indiana University and its trustees, employees, agents, servants and representatives in connection with any claim, suit, loss, damages, expenses, or other matters arising out of or related to the use of Bradford Woods, including without limitation, any claim, suit, loss, damages or expenses or other matters for loss, damages, or injury to person or property arising or alleged to arise from any act or omission of Group or its employees, agents, servants, and representatives, any camper, unless such loss is caused by the negligent, reckless or willful act or omission of Bradford Woods.

Staff Ratio: In the event that Bradford Woods does not have a sufficient ratio of program staff to participants, Group will have the option of reducing the number of participants and/or scheduling alternative time periods when the required ratio can be maintained, or canceling the program without penalty or charge.

Media: Group must notify Bradford Woods prior to the event if any members of the Media will be present during the event.

Termination of Agreement: This agreement between the parties shall be construed as a license, revocable in whole or part by Bradford Woods without notice. Bradford Woods reserves the right to terminate the agreement in its entirety or to remove any Group or participant for any reason including but not limited to threatened or actual safety, security, and emergency circumstances.

Guarantee of Numbers: Group must verify the total number of participants at least fourteen (14) days in advance of arrival. Bradford Woods will bill group based on this confirmed number. If no confirmation number is received, group will be held responsible for Total Estimated Event Cost as identified above.

Cancellation Policy: Group understands and agrees to the following CANCELLATION POLICY. If Group should cancel program, Group will be held responsible for 25% non-refundable deposit, plus:
- With 61 days notice prior to program date – 0% of estimated total cost in addition to deposit
- With 31-60 days notice prior to program date – 25% of estimated total cost in addition to deposit
- With 30 days or less notice prior to program date – 30% of estimated total cost in addition to deposit

This agreement must be signed and dated by 8/26/2009, or the terms of this agreement will be considered null and void. Deposit must be received with agreement or program dates may not be guaranteed. Executed on Wednesday, August 12, 2009.
